A PARAMOUNT-BURTON HOLMES TRAVEL-PICTURE

The Paramount-Burton Holmes release for March 6th is "Constantinople", one of the most interesting subjects which could be pictureized today. "Constantinople" has always been a city of romance, mystery and of historic and legendary interest. Mr. Holmes gives you a wonderful panorama of this interesting city, now under Allied control.

You arrive in time to witness the review of the French garrison on the 14th of July; not only regular French troops, but those most picturesque troops from the French colonies, the Spanis, the Senegalese and the picturesque French sailors and marines. You also inspect the French and British ships of war in the harbor, and you also see Allied tanks patrolling Constantinople streets. For the purpose of giving you a more personal knowledge of the city, Mr. Holmes takes you to the famous Galata Tower which, for centuries, has been the watch-tower for the guardians of the city.
